Dear Spady:

Thank you so much for a very fine day at Fort Holabird. You certainly make a good P.R.O. I think your superiors have found a real gem. Please express my thanks to Colonel P. M. Derzis for his time and his highly interesting tour. From my conversations with the foreign liaison officers on our return to Washington, I can say that they were very much impressed.

Thank you again for your invitation and your efforts to give us an extremely interesting day. Best wishes for the holidays.

Sincerely,
